

A cold, December day. A mystery unfolds. Julie Kroll stumbles away from a minor car accident in Northern Virginia, leaving behind her eight-year-old daughter...and an open container of alcohol. As darkness descends, she disappears.

Lipstick & Liquor* is a compelling new documentary that explores the secrets in the suburbs and confronts the stigma surrounding women who drink.

Caron Treatment Centers presents a special screening of

Lipstick & Liquor Secrets in the Suburbs

Followed by a panel discussion with Dr. Anita Gadhia-Smith, Ronald E. Smith, MD, PhD
Judge Richard Ringell, Filmmaker Lori Butterfield and Mary George

Saturday, April 11, 2015

5:00 p.m. - Reception

5:45 p.m. - Movie followed by panel discussion

The Virginia War Memorial

621 S. Belvidere Street • Richmond, VA 23220

This event is complimentary but pre-registration is required.
Register online at www.caron.org/lipstick-and-liquor-richmond

