

THE ANONYMOUS

RECOVERY IS OUT - TO CHANGE THE ADDICTION CONVERSATION FROM - PROBLEMS TO SOLUTIONS

Join us for a moving community event ...

Thursday, May 15 at 6:30 p.m.

Carnegie Institution for Science
1530 P St NW, Washington, DC

The Anonymous People is a documentary about the more than 23 million Americans living in long-term recovery from addiction to alcohol and other drugs. The moving story is told through the diverse faces and voices of recovery – people who have been fighting the deeply entrenched social stigma that has kept them silent and hidden for decades.

Here in Washington DC, you can be part of the conversation.

Join us in Washington, DC, for a screening of this important film. Afterward, stay to participate in a town hall forum moderated by William C. Moyers, Vice President Public Affairs and Community Relations Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation, and featuring panelists such as Johnny Allem, Founder and President of Aquila Recovery Clinic; Donna Potts, President of DC Recovery Community Alliance; Dr. Anita Gadhia-Smith, psychotherapist and bestselling author; and Frants Lasse Becker, domestic and international consultant and recovery advocate.

View the movie trailer at www.theanonymouspeople.com.

Reserve your seat for this special screening at www.hazelden.org/people. This event is presented by the Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation Center for Public Advocacy and Hazelden alumni in Washington, DC.

This is a free event. Seating is limited, so register early!
